

Tim Judson – Calling my Name

Fly - 06/2008 EADGBE/5

Verse 1

She's sitting in a corner on her own, feeling like the world is falling down - Full of stress at work and home, thinking she's the only one, she needs to look around - We all find it difficult sometimes to carry on with pressures pushing in from every side - And she will reach a point when it will break her if she lets it drag her down, I'd rather turn the tide

Chorus

I want to fly high, giving everyday a chance to be a good one - Full of hope, at least I'll try - I want to die having known I've lived each day for something better than myself - Something worth it every time, it's the thing that makes me fly

Verse 2

He struggles with the money in his hands, another night of heavy drinking gone - Will he ever understand the way he breaks himself apart that he's not the only one - Why do we insist on just existing through each day and feeling all pathetic when we fall - We blame our problems all on fate and let them blind our vision, can't you see that it's not fat at all

Bridge

I don't want to make it sound like all these things don't matter but you need to stop and notice something here, you need to have a look at Other people starving, dying, single mother, baby crying, drug abuser, never smiling, country after country fighting - You and I are far too lucky to moan about these things - Have a go and maybe one day you will find that like me, you can fly

Bricklayer - 02/2009 EADGBE/2

Verse 1

Pour your pint and drink with me, watching the boats drift by - I've seen the world and more, sat in the same pub all my life - I'll tell you stories of things I've seen working long days in the rain How no one else did a thing for me but I pulled through ok

Chorus

Don't you moan about poverty, hardship makes a man - We can't ignore the world you say, trust me son, I can - So there's kids in sweatshops, and teenage girls being sold in an unjust world You'll waste your time 'cause I don't give a damn

Verse 2

You're too young to understand so take a few tips from me - You've gotta think of yourself and no one else, that's how your life should be - I'm a simple man with a simple aim, to get myself to the top - I'll climb the rungs on the ladder of life, push other people off

Verse 3

I drive home in my nice new car to an LCD TV It tells me children are hungry, war all around but it's not affecting me - So there's a billion people without a home, well it's far too many to name But here's a couple of fingers to give them all, why don't you do the same

Autumn Again - 10/2008 CGCGCD/2

Verse 1

I sit and watch the leaves slowly falling - Bursting with colour all differently made - Calmly they sink as I sit here wondering how long before all the colours will fade

Verse 2

Frost creeping over, the temperature dropping Sooner or later the days will be cold - Sitting here I see the light quietly fading - Making things dull

as the colours grow old

Chorus

Like the leaves down at my feet, I'm falling again I do believe but can't hear you calling my name The light and the warmth leave, I'm cold from the rain - Still I'll wait here all empty for you, it's autumn again

Verse 3

Most of the birds have started migrating - The skies are now silent and the trees are all bare Oh how I long to be where they're going - Free to move on with no burdens to bear

Verse 4

Nothing can change the time we are losing Watching the sun sink low in the sky - All we can do is choose where we're going - Finding our way as the world passes by

Homeless Statistic - 10/2008 EADGBE/1

Verse 1

You may have seen me out when you're walking, we've never spoken at all - You kill time while I sit here waiting, day or night, spring or fall - Looking at me like my presence offends you, crossing the road so you don't have to get too close - You make a useless fool out of me more than you'll ever know

Chorus

I'm just another homeless statistic, a fault in society and even though I live out on your doorstep you won't ever care for me

Verse 2

I sit and smile while people give nothing in shining new shoes and warm coats - I didn't deserve this life I've been given, some are just born with no hope - I was born to be beaten, used and abused, I ran away when I found all the pain too hard - No I cry while a dying flame flickers within my heart

Bridge

I don't have any accounts to my name - But I'm so much richer than you in some ways - I know the strength of a smile or a helping hand - Try remembering that if you can

Sound Of Grace - 01/2009 DADGAD/2

Verse 1

The pictures on the screen, the darkness in my head - The love I fail to show, the words I haven't said - Obsession with the past, the fear of what's to come - Deception in my mouth, the justice is all gone

Verse 2

Secrets locked away, the things that I don't show I'm tripping over every step I try to go alone - The questions burn inside, I'm not who I should be - With all this chaos raging, I'm struggling to see

Chorus

I'll keep running and I won't stop till he tells me I can rest - Though my body and my soul will ache I'll give him nothing less - And relentlessly I'll chase him till I find him in that place - Never changing, always waiting there for me, the sound of grace

Verse 3

Your love has left its mark, you always save the day - I'll never earn this, never do enough to pay my way - At times I don't accept that I am nothing without you - But I'll give it all away now, 'cause here you make me new

Verse 4

So find me on my knees, I'm naked in your sight I'm face down in the dirt but you raise me up so high - You've taken all my greed, my shame and bitter pride - Now show the world I'm yours and help me change my life
